FISCHER IS KING

TALL and gangling Bobby Fischer used to cry when he lost a chess game. Now he freely admits that he is the greatest chess player in the world; and a lot of experts agree even though he has not won the world's championship. Yesterday the moody, controversial young man, once called Fischer Wins Interzonal ... And How!!

... eighth FIDE Interzonal Tournament this year held in Palma de Mallorca, Spain, is history. The top six: Fischer, Hosen, Geller, Uhlmann and Keres will join Petrosian and Korchnoi vs. Geller, the two winners of the tournament, in the final match on August 21, 1971. The pairings for the tournament are: Petrosian vs. Huebner, Korchnoi vs. Geller, the two winners of the tournament, and Fischer vs. Uhlmann or Uhlmann vs. Fischer.

Nixon Calling Bobby Fischer

"Big deal." "Yes I want you for the Nobel Peace Prize." "It's like what she said to all those..." "She was a genius, Bobby. I always said anyone who wins a championship for America, I would like to give you a white-on-black at the White House when you come back."
