4th R.K. Mishra Memorial

All India Open Rapid Chess Tournament

Chess player Late Mr. Ram Kumar Mishra majorly known as Mr. R.K. Mishra was born on 01-07-1965 in a small village Bateshwar near Agra City in Uttar Pradesh. He started his chess career at a late age of 28 years, when he with his family started living in Gwalior city. He secured his job as postal assistant with his skills in chess.

With limited resources present at that time Mr. R.K. Mishra secured a highest rating of 2292 in July 2003. He had played many games of chess with brilliant minds of INDIA, USA, AUSTRALIA, NEPAL etc. Due to heredity he caught diabetes and it started to take a toll on him as well as on his games.

He left us all on 18-11-2017 with unfinished dreams to encourage chess in Gwalior city and its youngsters heart and mind. But this dream is taken care by his son Er. Mayank Mishra who is director of Brainshaala International Education Pvt. Ltd. which works on Brain, Skills and Personality Development Programs all around the world with its unique franchise models.

MAYANK MISHRA
Director Brainshaala

Dear Participants,

It gives me an immense pleasure to welcome you to the ALL INDIA OPEN 4th R.K. MISHRA Chess Tournament. The tournament is one of its kind and in the memory of the greatest player we got from MP and Gwalior who too is my role model. I hope that it will enable the chess participants to get a taste of the competitions of international stature in Chess. Holding the R.K. MISHRA CUP is a distinguish achievement for any chess player. The sport teaches us to seize the day. It teaches us to think out of the box and tackle real life problems with a practical and unwavering mindset. With this thought in mind the first is being organised to build the qualities of resilience and 'never give up' attitude in our students. I truly and wholeheartedly wish for the success of this tournament in doing so.

All the best !!
